TEST DELETIONS IN HAC

The following tests have been made non orderable in HAC:

UEX – Urine Saturation Study

4780/PEF – Phenolphthalein, Feces

This test is being discontinued by Mayo Medical Laboratories. It was initially designed to look for laxative abuse by testing for phenolphthalein in feces. Phenolphthalein was found to be a carcinogen and was banned from use in laxatives in 1999. Old laxatives that contained the product are now out of circulation and therefore, the test has been discontinued.

HAC PAPERWORK

When submitting HAC paperwork (requisitions and Dispatch lists) to AML, please fold only into halves, and not into quarters.

The decreased number of folds enables scanners to better capture the documents into our electronic record retention system.

Thank you!
