www.allina.com/library

Description: Allina’s Web-based collection of databases offering access to the medical literature. Databases include Medline, Cinahl, HealthStar, CancerLit and PsycINFO, the Journals@Ovid Collection, as well as Evidence-Based Medicine and the Cochrane Collection. Prior registration is required for access from outside the Allina network. The direct address is gateway.ovid.com.

1. Getting Started
Select OVID, then choose either GENERIC ACCESS (no password) or PERSONAL ACCOUNT (enter ID/ password). Click the START OVID button. Now select a database by clicking on its name.

2. Searching
Enter your search terms in the KEYWORD OR PHRASE box. Hit ENTER or PERFORM SEARCH. For searches involving more than one concept, you’ll need to complete a separate search for each concept, then use the COMBINE button.

3. Mapping to Subject Headings
When the MAPPING DISPLAY page appears, either;
- click on the desired term to see the tree display of medical subject headings, or
- simply select the most appropriate term by clicking the box to its left, or
- if none of the subject headings are appropriate, select the "Search as Keyword" option at the bottom of the list, or try a new term.
Select the EXPLODE box if you wish to include the subject headings that are nested underneath a term in the tree display. This will broaden your search.
Select the FOCUS box to narrow your search.
When all desired options are selected, click CONTINUE.

4. Selecting Subheadings
Select the desired subheadings, if any. Click the CONTINUE button. The default is to "Include All subheadings."

5. Limiting Your Search

You may narrow your search results by checking any of the LIMIT TO options. This can be done either before or after performing your search.

Other limit options are available by clicking the LIMIT button.

6. Viewing Results

When search is finished, click DISPLAY or scroll down. You can view abstracts, the complete reference, or full-text (if available). Use the MAIN, TITLES DISPLAY, or NEXT buttons (not your BACK button) to navigate within citation results.

7. Displaying / Printing

You may print anything shown on the screen at any time by using the print function of your browser. However, for more precise control of the appearance of your printout, use the CITATION MANAGER to redisplay the documents before printing them.

- Select citations by checking the box to the left of each record.
- Scroll down to the CITATION MANAGER. Select the desired options.
- Click the either DISPLAY or PRINT PREVIEW button. Your selected citations will be redisplayed.
- Print using the print function of your Web browser.

Hint: when printing full-text articles, go to the OUTPUT box, click on PRINT PREVIEW, select Full Size graphics, then click DISPLAY. Now print using the print function of your browser.
